Computer Information Systems

Prepare to analyze information systems, design databases and write code for public or private organizations.

Potential career paths

- ► Computer Support
- ► Database Support
- ► Information Technology
- ► Network Assistance
- ► Programming Support
- ► Web Development

Columbia College offers:

- ► Tutoring
- ► Internship opportunities
- ► Lifelong career support

A.S.

Columbia College offers an Associate in Science in Computer Information Systems.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

Complete a total of 60 hours, 24-26 of which will be general education classes. Complete core courses in the following areas:

- Programming
- College Algebra or Calculus & Analytic Geometry
- Intro to Computer Information Systems or Intro to Computer Science
- Agile Software Development
- Intro to Databases
- Statistics
- Financial Accounting
- Managerial Accounting
- Intro to Business
- Business Communication

Columbia College
established 1851

Admissions@CCIS.edu | CCIS.edu
(573) 875-7515 or (833) 844-3328