A. When is an appeal form necessary?

Students who have been suspended from financial aid may make a written appeal for reinstatement of eligibility if extenuating circumstances have contributed to their inability to meet the requirements for satisfactory progress. Extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Death of an immediate family member
- Severe injury or illness of the student or an immediate family member
- Emergency situations such as fire or flood
- Legal separation from spouse or divorce
- Military reassignment or required job transfers or shift changes

Be Aware: There are two types of suspension—academic and financial aid. If you have questions regarding academic suspension, please contact your academic advisor. If you are unsure if your situation warrants a financial aid appeal, contact us at FinancialAid@ccis.edu.

Students are notified of the results in the Columbia College CougarMail account. See chart below for notification dates. Important: appeal forms should be submitted as soon as possible.

The Appeal Committee will not request additional supporting documentation when reviewing your submitted appeal. If you have additional supporting documentation that you want reviewed with your appeal, submit to the Financial Aid office as soon as possible. Some examples of appropriate documentation include: death certificates, medical documentation, documentation showing emergency situation, legal separation or divorce documents, military reassignments or job/shift transfer documentation, or unofficial transcripts. This documentation should be submitted as soon as possible after submitting your electronic Financial Aid Appeal Form.

D. How will I know the Financial Aid Office received my appeal or additional documentation?

Appeal documentation will show as received in your CougarTrack Self-Service Financial Aid "Required Documents" link. If you marked 'YES' that you would be submitting additional documentation with your appeal form, the Committee will not review your appeal until those supporting documents are received. See the chart above for document deadlines. If you indicated "YES" that you would submit documents, but now do not want to send additional documents, please notify FinancialAid@ccis.edu. We recommend that students frequently check CougarMail for updates.
